THE MEMOIR 1955

Published by the students

of

Manchester District High School

Richmond, Virginia

Little Major the annual mascot, presents the 20th Memoir. He will represent school spirit in and around Manchester. Major will introduce the different phases of school life; he will attend football games, basketball games and all the other activities, also Major will introduce to you the classes and the administration.

Some of the Memoir staff sell our mascot to the student body: Don Gobble, Mary King, Estelle Harris, Glen Waldrop, David Roberson, and Billie Dale Richardson.

Our Dedication

The roar of the crowd as the buzzer signals halftime and the home team is in the lead; the thrill of seeing the band in uniform, moving in step and hearing all the instruments blended in harmony; a moment of prayer before lunch; the achievements a club can list at the close of school; the quiet pride of accomplishment with an assignment well done; the thrill of just being young and knowing one belongs—these are a few of the things that make up that vague, indefinable and untouchable quality known as SCHOOL SPIRIT.

We have symbolized SCHOOL SPIRIT in LITTLE MAJOR, our mascot. To him and all he stands for; we, the staff of 1955 dedicate the MEMOIR.

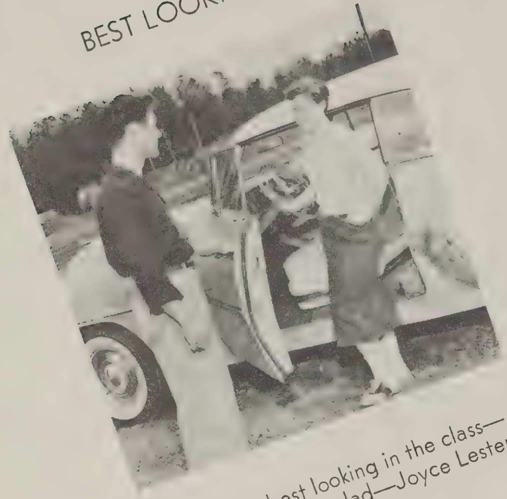
The comedy, "CrewCuts and Longhairs" was centered around Biff Witherspoon, played by Franklin Moore, who is a high school football star, but not overly intelligent. The plot begins when Biff allows himself to be hypnotized by a friend, Jean Blake, in hopes of sharpening his brain for an exam. His professor, Mr. Drooper, portrayed by Delano Driver, is accidently hypnotized and by some odd quirk the two brain waves get crossed. Biff takes on the aspects of a scholar and Mr. Drooper begins acting like a high school kid. It took three acts to unravel the mixup.

Those in the cast were Joyce Lester, Margaret Furman, Jane Staples, Sammie Jo Brigman, Joanna Enroughty, Malvin Tuck, and Don Gobble.

HALL

BEST LOOKING



Who's the best looking in the class—
Don Gobble's the lad—Joyce Lester, the lass.

BEST STUDENT

Who study and make the best grades on their test—
Glen Waldrop and Joan—as for students—they're best!

MOST TALENTED

Camelia and Don are the most talented two—
Their music is classic and "red hot and blue."

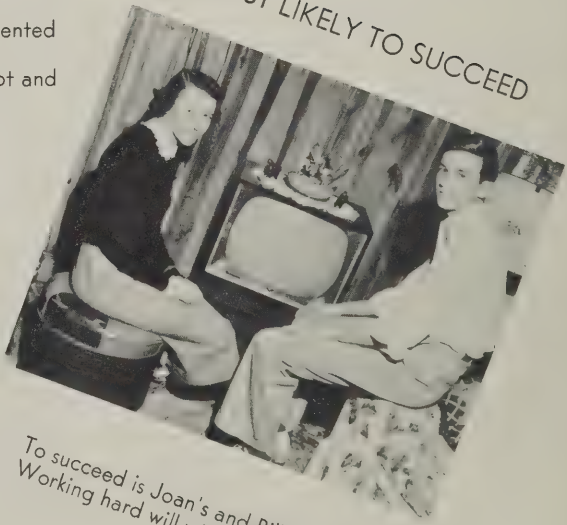
BEST ALL-AROUND

Working, or playing, or musically bound—
Bubba and Joan are best all-'round.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED



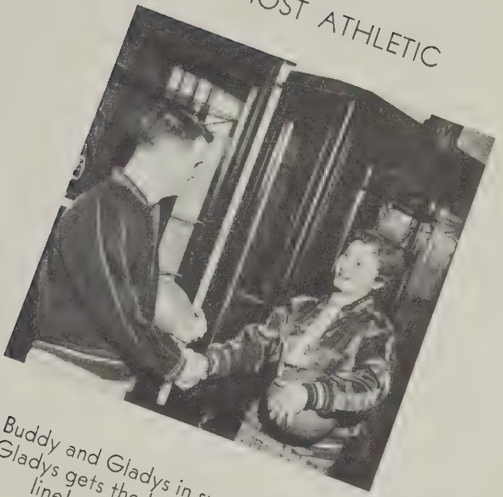
To succeed is Joan's and Billy's aim—
Working hard will win them fame.

OF FAME

MOST CO-OPERATIVE

Jack and Joan really rate—
When it comes to folks who co-operate.

MOST ATHLETIC



Buddy and Gladys in sports are fine—
Gladys gets the baskets—Buddy holds that line!

FRIENDLIEST

When it comes to being friendly—anybody could—
But the two friendliest seniors are Buddy and Anne Wood.

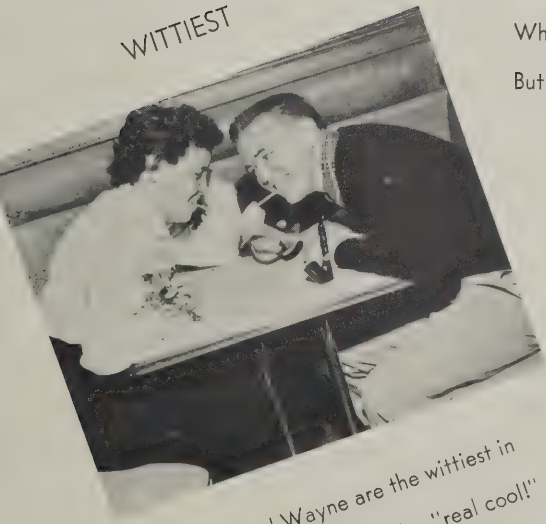
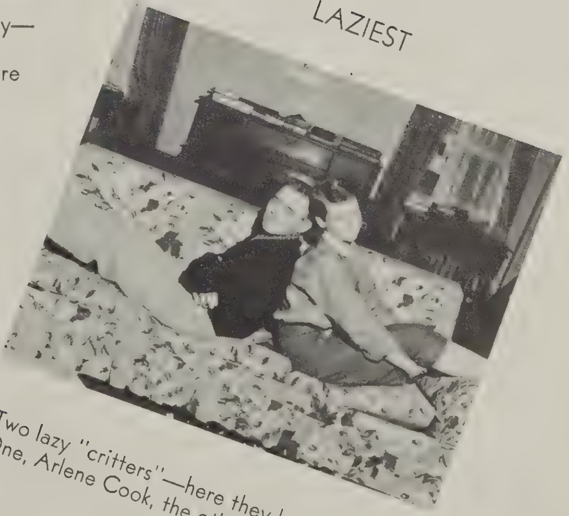
WITTIEST



Anne and Wayne are the wittiest in school—
The kids all say—they're "real cool!"

LAZIEST



Two lazy "critters"—here they both sit—
One, Arlene Cook, the other, Wayne Whitt.

BETA CLUB OFFICERS

Seated: Jackie Thompson, treasurer; Jack Shagena, president. Standing: Sylvia Richardson, secretary; Betty Lou White, reporter; Myrtle Goins, Vice-president.

BETA CLUB

The Beta Club is a non-secret, achievement organization for high school students. Its objectives are: to encourage effort, promote character, stimulate achievement and to encourage and assist students to continue their education after high school.

The purpose of the Beta Club is to promote the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among high school students.

This year the Beta Club sold refreshments at the Senior Play, kept four tables in the cafeteria clean, sold cards to send a representative to the convention at Roanoke, sent Christmas baskets to needy families at Christmas time, took care of the smaller children at P T A meetings, and assisted in filling Christmas stockings for the Junior Red Cross.

Above: Club members keeping cafeteria clean. Winston Clodfelter, Myrtle Goins, James Marsh, Lois Leber, Catherine Harris, June Crump, and Carrol Andrews.

The purpose of the Junior Red Cross is to promote a better understanding and relation between young people in our country and other countries all over the world.

The Junior Red Cross was first pictured in the 1943 Memoir.

Some of the projects our council has participated in this year are:

1. The filling of Christmas stockings for McGuire Hospital.
2. The filling of a Chest to be sent to foreign countries.
3. Sending girls to aid the nurses at McGuire Hospital.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The two-year-old Marie N. Morris Chapter of Quill and Scroll at Manchester received Honorable Mention for their 1953-54 activities. This chapter was the only one in the state to receive this honor.

During the 1954-55 school year the club has added quite a few other activities to their slate. They sponsored the Quill and Scroll banquet at Southern Interscholastic Press Association in Lexington, April 29 of this year. Also they put on an original play based upon work in corrective institutions.

This year's chapter sponsored a float for the M. H. S. and T. D. game which presented the four points of the school newspaper campaign for this past year.

This year's Monogram Club has made a definite rule on the awarding of monograms. The first time a boy earns a letter he will be awarded a blocked "M" regardless of the grade he is in. Then if he earns another monogram, he will receive a certificate until his senior year. If he is a member of the Monogram Club and has received his letter before his senior year, he will be awarded a coat sweater with a monogram on it.

The club has sold drinks and candy at the home basketball games. They also sponsored the Faculty-Monogram basketball game.

The purpose of the Manchester Hi-Y Club is "To create, maintain and extend, throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character. The Manchester Hi-Y is affiliated with the National Hi-Y Clubs through the Y.M.C.A.

This year the club is the strongest it has been in the last four years. All of the officers attended the Southern States Leadership Assembly in Blue Ridge, North Carolina and some of the boys attended the Norfolk Conference for leaders.

The club does many service projects in the school and community. This year one of the projects in the school was the preparation of a parking lot for the school.

Hi-Y members also have a basketball team that competes with other Hi-Y clubs in the City. Last year the Manchester team worked its way to the state Hi-Y tournament in Norfolk only to lose the first game to Portsmouth Circle Hi-Y 72-55.

Student body giving thanks.

The fifty-four members of the regular SCA meets on the first Monday of each month to discuss school problems and projects.

This year the group had a hard task placed upon them. This task was to install the honor code. This honor Code was on a completely voluntary basis. It was formed mainly to promote honesty.

The treasury profited more from the Sadie Hawkins Day Dance than has ever been taken in before by it. S.C.A. members also helped with the operetta and received one half the profits of that.

IS GOVERNING BODY

This year the inner council was formed from the regular council. It consists of the four officers and a representative from grades 8-12. The duty of members is to decide the problems to be brought before the regular council for discussion. The idea of an inner council made an easier job for everyone. All business to be presented before the regular council is better organized and therefore, much more is accomplished. The officers of the student body: Frank Dolezal, Vice-President; Joan Llewellyn, President; Emily Cashion, Secretary; Charles Schilling, Treasurer.

HONOR CODE
MANCHESTER DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

As a member of the student body at Manchester High School, I HEREBY PLEDGE MYSELF:

To be honest with myself and others in thought, word, and deed.

To promote clean wholesome thought, speech and conduct.

To be helpful and friendly to teachers and fellow students.

To be considerate of classmates, officers, safety patrols and bus drivers.

To encourage decent conduct, always remembering that I represent my school and community.

To strive to achieve and maintain high moral standards that will be a credit to my home and my school.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America, which is an organization of girls who have taken or are taking Home Economics, promotes an appreciation of the joy and satisfaction of homemaking.

This year Manchester was host to the countywide meeting of Future Homemakers which is held semi-annually. At their regular monthly meetings the girls hear speakers on family relations and other subjects relating to home life.

In addition to these activities, the club sponsors several parties and dances throughout the year. All of the club's activities fit in with their motto, "Toward New Horizons."

SUB-STAFF ADDED

Good Luck and Best Wishes Deane

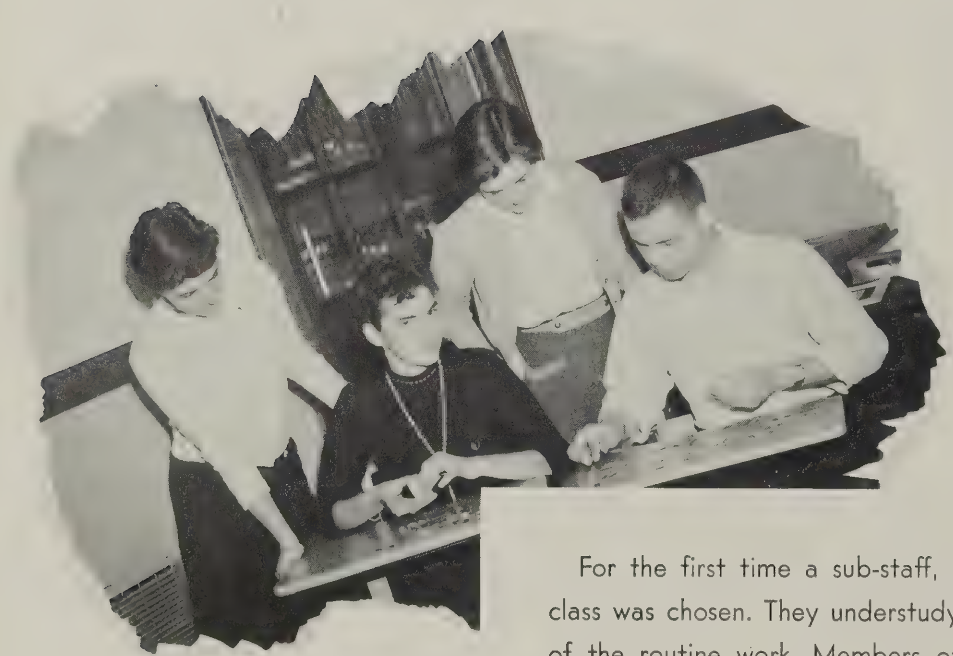
Emily Cashion, Estelle Harris, Woodrow Oakley, Vernelle Carmichael, Juanita Yeatts, David Harris, Dean Franklin, Thelma Bowman, Mildred Belcher, Elsie Snow, Ray Powell.



For the first time a sub-staff, composed of members of the Junior class was chosen. They understudy the Senior staff and help with much of the routine work. Members of the sub-staff will receive first consideration for the staff for the coming year, but this does not mean they will be the staff. Positions were open to all members of the Junior class for next year's staff. Members of the sub-staff remain subject to removal by vote of the Senior staff at any time for not co-operating or not assuming their share of responsibility.

MEMOIR ENLARGED

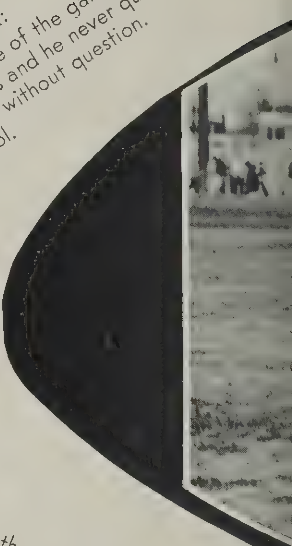
The 1955 Memoir staff was chosen in April of last year. The members were selected from candidates in the Junior class by the '54 staff. Each member was required to sell $15 in ads. Mrs. George D. Shropshire is sponsor.

A summer supplement containing activities taking place near the close of school, which previously had to be included in the Memoir the following year, is also being added. This supplement can be attached in the back of the regular edition.

Don Gobble, Faye Whitt, Sylvia Richardson, Carrol Andrews, Marian Martin, David Robinson, Mary King, Glen Waldrop, Betty Lou White, Margaret Furman, Sammie Jo Brigman, Diane Halley, Jack Shagena.

THE PLAYER:

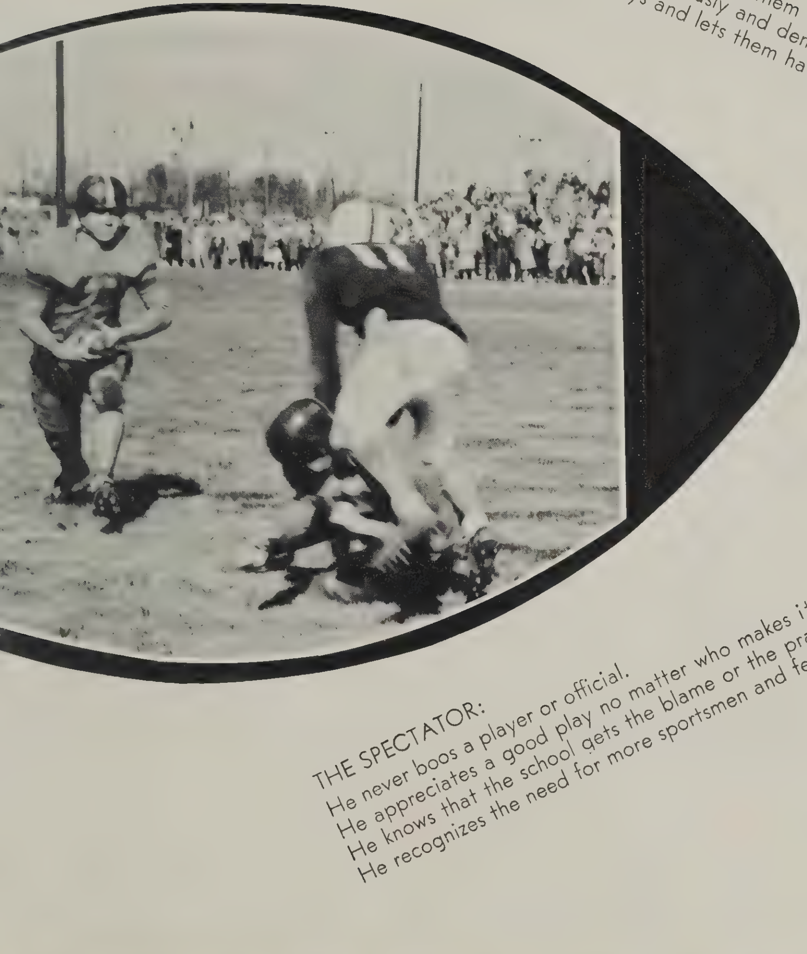
He lives clean and plays hard. He plays for the love of the game.
He wins without boasting, he loses without excuses and he never quits.
He respects officials and accepts their decisions without question.
He never forgets that he represents his school.



THE COACH:

He inspires in his boys a love for the game and the desire to win.
He teaches them that it is better to lose fairly, than to win unfairly.
He leads players and spectators to respect officials by setting them a good example.
He is the type of man he wants his boys to be.

THE OFFICIAL:
He knows the rules.
He is fair and firm in all decisions. He calls them as he sees them.
He treats players and coaches courteously and demands the same treatment for himself.
He knows the game is for the boys and lets them have the spotlight.



THE SPECTATOR:
He never boos a player or official.
He appreciates a good play no matter who makes it.
He knows that the school gets the blame or the praise for his conduct.
He recognizes the need for more sportsmen and fewer "sports."

BUDDY DAVIS LEADS LANCERS

[illegible] Brisland Halley

Captain Buddy Davis gained 3,113 yards in 3 years to set a state yardage record. This year Buddy did all the kicking, and some passing. Buddy was also outstanding on defense. From his position as linebacker he made jarring tackles all over the field, and turned intercepted passes into touchdowns. Whenever an opponent was expected to punt Buddy moved back to receive it. His punt returns left nothing to be desired. For his fine all-around play Buddy was chosen Captain of the mythical All Suburban Team.

LANCERS FINISH SEASON WITH RECORD OF 12 WINS - 7 DEFEATS

Despite the loss of four first string ballplayers from last year's squad, the Lancers came back this year for a successful season. They were led by the accurate shooting and fine ball handling of Richard Lines, Bennie Shumaker, Tommy Davis, John Royer and Bruce Saunders, who were the starting five throughout most of the season. They also received commendable help from reserves such as Wayne Lowry, Donnie Boyd, Joe Wilson, Clarence Walton, Alan Mansfield and Delano Driver.

The Lancers were also fifth seeded in the Group II District II tournament held at Ashland, Va., on March 3, 4 and 5.

LANCERETTES HAVE

The Manchester girls team this year displayed fine sportsmanship and true love for good basketball. The team won 11 games and lost 3. Both players and coach thought the season was extremely successful.

In the Group II, District 2 tournament held at Midlothian February 26, 1955; Manchester defeated Thomas Dale 34-18 and Midlothian 28-19. Manchester was the only undefeated team of the tournament. Placed on the All-Tournament team from Manchester were Virginia Dowd, Gladys Norman, Joan Llewellyn, and Mary Kathryn King. Carol Ragland and Myrtle Goins received second team honors.

PREP - ALL AMERICAN

COACH & ATHLETE

Buddy Davis, with four sports-filled years at Manchester was nominated by the Richmond News Leader and selected to the first team of the Eighth annual Prep All-American Football Team by the Wigwam Wisemen of America at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

COMMUNIQUE

Betty Martin, reporter, and Delano Driver, sports' writer, rehearse their parts in the play, "In Faith". Shirley Snead, Co-editor, waits her turn at the mike.

Joanna Enroughty, copy editor, and Royal Inge, editorial page editor, practice before the mike.

The staff publishes a paper each month. Last spring the paper was awarded the Virginia Press Award and in the fall the Galleys Award for their editorial campaign.

Co-operating with the Quill and Scroll they presented a play, "In Faith", depicting the work of the staff in the corrective schools of Virginia. The play was written by the adviser, Mrs. Morris.

OPERETTA

Carrol Andrews, pianist; Joanne Williams, Cousin Hebe; Wilson Little, Bob Becket; Jack Winn, Sir Joseph; Leon Long, Dick Deadeye; Frank Dolezal, Bill Bobstay; Sandra Hainley, Little Buttercup; Corale Tyson, Midship Mike; James Morris, Captain Corcoran; Camelia Carnes, Josephine; Eugene Condrey, Ralph Rackstraw.

Some time before Act I opens, Ralph has fallen in love with Josephine, the daughter of his commanding officer, Captain Corcoran. Likewise, Little Buttercup, a peddler woman has fallen in love with the Captain himself. Class pride, however, stands in the way of the natural inclinations of both the Corcorans to reciprocate Ralph's and Buttercup's affections. The Captain has, in fact, been arranging a marriage betgeen his daughter and Sir Joseph, first Lord of the Admiralty.

The Senior staff for the "54-55" Memoir is made up of Co-editors Sammie Jo Brigman and Margaret Furman; Business Manager, Betty Lou White; Advertising Manager, Norma Halley; Copy Editor, Sylvia Richardson; Boys' Sports Editor, Glen Waldrop; Girls' Sports Editor, Mary King; Club Editor, Jack Shagena; Class Editor, Faye Whitt; Circulation Managers, Carol Andrews and Marian Martin; Photographer, David Roberson; and Art Editor, Billie Dale Richardson.

The supplement is put out by the Junior Annual Staff, as practice work in preparation for the coming year. In it, we have tried to include all the activities which have occurred since the last deadline of the '55 Memoir.

Johnson successful in Pole Vault.

TRACK

Buddy Davis throws the discus for Manchester.

The track team is in its fourth year at Manchester. The high point of a successful season was the defeat of two Group I schools, Hopewell and John Marshall, in a triangle meet April 20 .

Buddy Davis and "Hooker" Johnson each broke three school records during the season. Buddy set new marks in shot put, discus, high jump while Johnson smashed both hurdles and pole vault standards.

The regular season record showed three wins and three losses in a schedule divided equally between Group I and Group II schools.

The baseball team had a very successful season, winning all but one game of the sixteen played. Buddy Davis led the Lancers in batting with .359 average. The Lancers started from the bottom with one senior returning from the first string. The Lancers, led by Coach Perrin, hope to make next year better than this year with the support of some hard hitters for the next year's team.

JUNIOR VARSITY SOFTBALL

Betty Dowdy, Coach

The Junior Varsity Softball team was organized this year for the purpose of encouraging younger girls to take an active part in this sport. The team had a good season and the members have gained valuable experience which will be helpful to them in next year's season of play. There were three wins, two losses and one tie.

JUNIOR AND

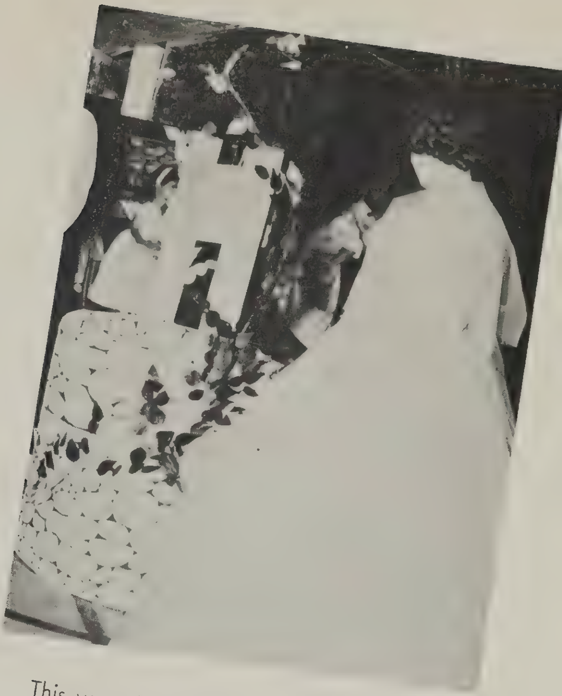
Junior Class President, Jimmy Davis and the Senior mascots wait to crown the King and Queen.

"Tara Theme" was the theme for the 1955 Junior-Senior prom. The bare gym was transformed into a lovely Southern Plantation lawn party setting for the occasion. Varied colors of blue streamers covered the ceiling and along the sides was the effect of a stone wall covered with spring flowers. There were four large, ivy-covered columns around the orchestra of Jimmy Yankovich, and in the background were two southern plantations. On the far end of the gym was a large Confederate flag. Japanese lanterns provided soft lights to complete the effect.

Juniors decorating the Gym: Anne Edmunds, Elsie Little and Donnie Boyd.

Sixty-five couples took part in the figure this year.

SENIOR PROM



This year the wishing well was used as the center of the prom.

While the "Syncopators" were entertaining with singing, the couples prepared for the figure, led by Jimmy Davis, the Junior Class President. Each couple threw a penny in the well, and after making a wish, moved on to form a heart. In this formation Jimmy announced our King and Queen of the prom and then they led in the dancing as the music of Tara's Theme was played. At 12 o'clock all left the gymn having thoroughly enjoyed another prom at M.H.S.

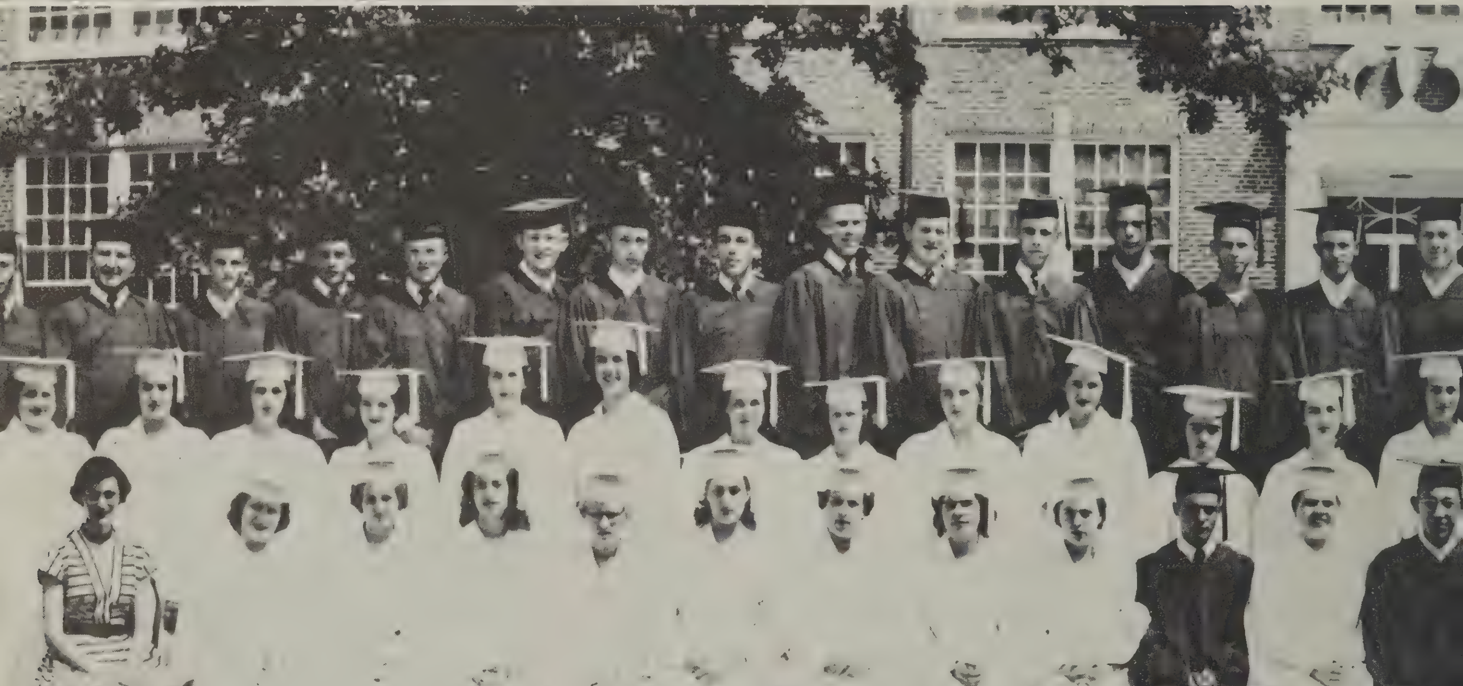
King and Queen of this year's Junior and Senior prom are Ann Wood and Buddy Davis.

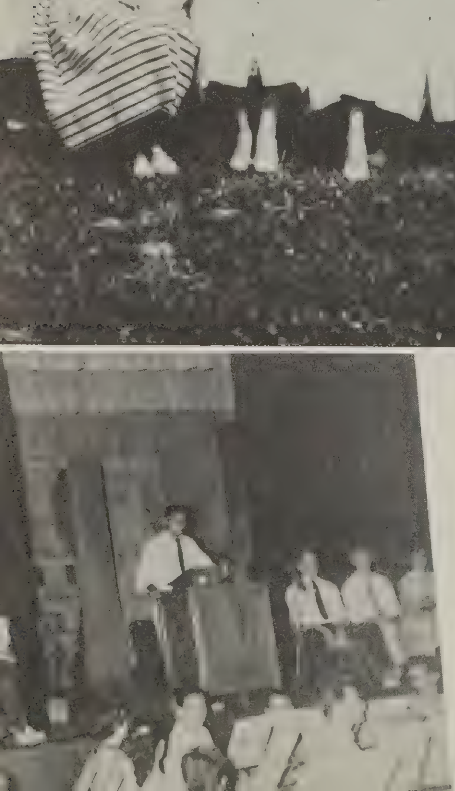
GRADU

Gifts presented to senior sponsors—Mrs. Morris, Miss Kantner, Mrs. Smith in Class Day Program.



Seventy-nine seniors of Manchester received their diplomas on June 7, in the school auditorium climaxing their formal secondary education.

Speeches were given by the four top-ranking students of the class. Carroll Andrews spoke on "The World Youth Faces," Wayne Lowry "A Code for Happiness," Winston Clodfelter, "What Is Success?", and Marian Martin, "This I Believe."



Philip Smith presents the optimistic view of school days.

ATION

Class Day—Seniors march down the aisle to their places of honor.

Joan Llewellyn received the citizenship award from the Daughters of the American Revolution. The Balfour award was presented to Marion Martin for scholarship, achievement and citizenship. The Ruritan Club citizenship award went to Jane Staples and Buddy Davis. Also Gladys Norman and Buddy Davis received athletic trophies for outstanding work in sports. These trophies were given by Joe Ukrop.

Jean Blake reads Class Will.

Mr. Leverty presents Mrs. Marie N. Morris with the Virginia Press Award for "The Communique" which was announced at the S. I. P. A. Awards dinner. She was one of three to receive the Distinguished Service Citation at the Convention.

S. I. P. A. and FORENSICS

Delegates from both the Memoir and The Communique staffs prepare to go to Lexington, Virginia for the Southern Interscholastic Press Association Convention.

Persons who entered the Forensics.

Manchester had a good representation at the Forensic Meet this year. Barbara Cooke took second place in Girls' Prose and Norman Lassiter won second place in Boys' Prose. David Roberson proved he was a good "speller" by taking second place in the Spelling Contest. Shirley Harris and Bennie Thomas took part in the Girls' and Boys' Public Speaking Contest.

JUNIOR PLAY

The leads were played by Shirley Harris, Joanne Williams, Barbara Garret, Leon Long, and Alice Powell.

Some of the supporting cast were John Royer, Leslie Roberson, Frances Smith, John Albright, Iris Faye Hudson.

MARRYING MARGARET

A complicated comedy in which two girls try to marry off their older sister so they can be wed.

Margaret, the sister in question, refuses to have anything to do with men until she finds her maiden aunt, her idol, flirting with a professor and is disillusioned.

Lelia and Winifred give a masquerade ball to interest Margaret in the social whirl and the result is a bedlam of thieves, detectives, and characters from storyland.

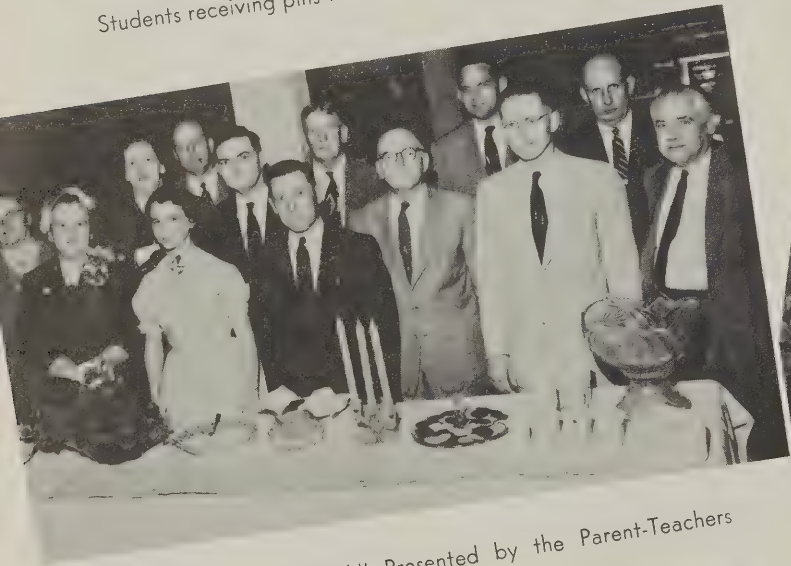
Jo-Anne Koch, Nuffy Ihlenfield, Elaine Butler, Juanita Yeatts, Elsie Snow, John Royer and Bennie Shumaker were on Committees preparing for the Junior Play.

Others in the cast were Billy Davis, Alice Tanner, John Royer, Janet Chase, Shirley Harris, Leslie Saunders, Frank Dolezal, and Jimmy Davis.

FINAL FEATURES OF 1955

Students receiving pins for outstanding work on the Memoir.

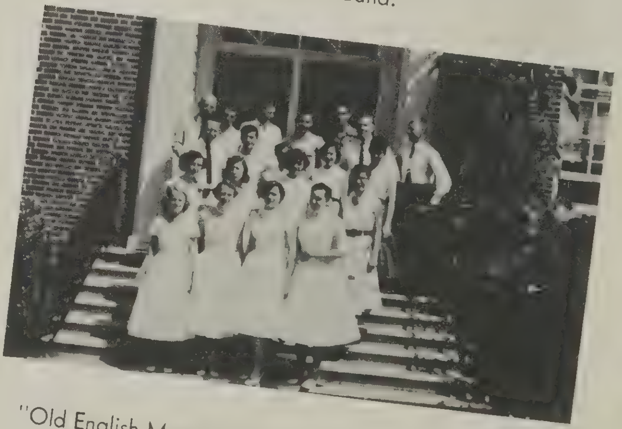
Students in the "All State Chorus."



"This is Your Life, Mr. Reid." Presented by the Parent-Teachers Association.

Members of "All State Band."

There were 20 boys receiving letters in sports.



"Old English Monograms" were awarded by Mr. Reid.
